Arson is a particular problem in schools, with most fires likely to be started by pupils, ex pupils or those with knowledge of the school. Of all the risk reduction methods, the most benefit may come from efforts to reduce the threat from arson. Measures to reduce arson may include the following:

- Deter unauthorised entry to the site by limiting site entrances, providing appropriate boundary security and implementing controlled site access,
- Thoroughly secure all entry points to the premises, including windows and the roof, but make sure that this does not compromise people's ability to use the escape routes,
- Ensure the outside of the building is well lit,
- Reduce the opportunity for an offender to start a fire by reducing concealed entrances or areas which offer cover,
- Make sure you regularly remove all combustible rubbish,
- Do not place rubbish skips adjacent to the building,
- Do not site wall mounted waste bins beneath windows or on walls covered in combustible cladding – in general secure waste bins in a compound separated from the building,
- Do not allow combustible displays or storage on the internal windowsills of ground floor rooms,
- Secure all store rooms, staff restrooms, the Head teacher's office and general office areas against intrusion at the end of the working day,
- Secure flammable liquids so that intruders cannot use them,
- Reduce the scope for potential fire damage by limiting the availability of easily ignitable materials and the opportunity for fire to spread through the premises,
- Maximise the use of video surveillance,
- Encourage staff to report people acting suspiciously,
- Promote good relations with neighbours who overlook your premises – they can be your eyes when your premises are unoccupied, and:
- Do not park vehicles next to windows or doors opening into buildings.
